Both of the texts below are about women’s rights. Give a brief description of differences and parallels between the style of the language in the two texts, for example with regard to word choice and sentence structure. Support your answer with examples from both texts. Write your answer in English.

Text 1:

It was we, the people, not we, the white male citizens, nor yet we, the male citizens; but we, the whole people, who formed this Union. And we formed it, not to give the 3 blessings of liberty, but to secure them; not to the half of ourselves and the half of our posterity¹, but to the whole people – women as well as men. And it is downright mockery to talk to women of their enjoyment of the blessings of liberty while they
6 are denied the use of the only means of securing them provided by this democratic-republican government – the ballot.²

Susan B. Anthony, “On Women’s Right to Vote”, 1873

Text 2:

They said a woman’s place
Was staying in her hut
3 Washin’, cookin’, cleanin’
Wiping babies’ butts.
They said she’d never see the day
6 We’d equal up to them.
But here we are;
We’ve come so far
9 I guess we sure showed them.

Dolly Parton, “19th Amendment”, 2018

En skandale har ramt det amerikanske sportstøjsfirma Nike. Som ansigt på deres nyeste kampagne har firmaet valgt fodboldstjernen Colin Kaepernick. Kaepernick gjorde sig bemærket, da han nægtede at stå op, mens den amerikanske nationalsang blev spillet. I stedet knælede han i protest mod, at sorte amerikanere stadig oplever racisme og social ulighed.

På de sociale medier kan man nu finde flere videoer af folk, der brænder deres Nike-sko af, og også Donald Trump fordømmer stjernens opførsel og mener, at sportsstjerner, der åbenlyst ikke respekterer nationalsangen, bør sendes ud af landet.
