Nedenstående tekst er et brev fra den engelske online læserbrevkasse “Dear Deirdre”. Beskriv kort tekstens sproglige stil, fx med hensyn til ordvalg og sætningsopbygning. Underbyg dit svar med eksempler fra teksten. Skriv dit svar på dansk.

Dear Deirdre,

I've always felt I'm a disappointment. I'm a 23-year-old woman and I trained as a
3 nursery nurse but Mum wanted me to be a doctor.

Up until earlier this year, I was working in a children's nursery but my boss was a bully and I could take no more so I left and decided to find something new.

6 It's not been that simple, though. I now think I'd like to retrain as a teacher.

My mum says I'm lazy and useless. She constantly asks for rent money which I don't have.

9 She says horrible things about how she gave me a loving home and this is how I repay her.

She reckons I'm hopeless. It makes me cry. I just wish I could go somewhere else and 12 not come back.

DEIDRE SAYS: I don't know what your mum is taking out on you but it is not your fault. [...]

Oversæt følgende tekst til engelsk.

I 1940'erne var tysk ikke populært i engelske skoler. Ikke desto mindre besluttede den engelske forfatter John le Carré sig til at lære sproget. Hans lærer var klar over, at der var modvilje mod tysk, men han fastholdt, at den ægte tyske kultur ville vise sig efter nazismens brutalitet.

John le Carré mener, at det at lære et fremmedsprog tvinger os til at være præcise og aldrig give op, før vi forstår en tekst helt. På den måde kan kendskab til fremmedsprog være et værn mod løgne.
